NAMES TEN SUBJECTS FOR SPECIAL ACTION

GOVERNOR McGOVERN HAS ISSUED OFFICIAL CALL FOR SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE.

TO AID STRICKEN CITY

Relief For Black River Falls and to Provide for Improvement of Portage Levee Most Important.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., March 9.—A special session of the Wisconsin legislature—the first since 1905—will be called to begin Tuesday, April 30, to enact legislation on ten specific subjects. Of first importance is relief for the city of Black River Falls and state aid to improve the Portage levee for protection of life and property against floods. The call was issued by Gov. F. E. McGovern late Monday afternoon. Simultaneously Secretary of State James A. Franke declared a primary election for April 2 in the Fourth assembly district (Milwaukee) and in the fourteenth and thirteenth senatorial districts to fill vacancies. The latter were caused respectively by the removal of Senator J. E. Lohr from Appleton to Milwaukee, and the death of Senator J. A. Wright, Merrill. In the Milwaukee district a successor to Assemblyman Carl H. Dornier, deceased, must be elected. The election will be held on April 28. Nominating papers must be filed eight days prior to April 2. Governor's Official Call. Gov. McGovern's official call is as follows: "On October 6 of last year, after a period of exceptionally heavy rains, the dams in Black River at Delta, Hatfield and Black River Falls broke in rapid succession and the tremendous flood of water they disengaged poured in a torrent over Black River Falls, sweeping away a large part of the business section of the city and destroying property worth hundreds of thousands of dollars. In response to an immediate appeal for aid the state sent two companies of the Third regiment of the National Guard to protect life and property in the flooded district and organized an executive committee to receive contributions and relieve distress. Under the directions of this committee work was at once begun to restore the river to its former channel and to keep it there and to rebuild the dam which it had been found necessary to blast out with dynamite. These improvements are now well under way; the needy and homeless have been cared for and plans have been devised for the rebuilding of the portion of the city demolished by the flood.

CHINESE GUNBOATS ATTACK LUKS FORT

Fire Centered on Boguan Fort at Canton This Morning—Luka Threatens to Shell Foreign Quarters.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Hongkong, China, March 19.—A flotilla of Chinese gun boats opened fire on Boguan fort at Canton today. The fort has been in the hands of the followers of Luka, the brigand chief, for a week past since the soldiers mutinied and handed it over to the robbers. The robbers repelled vigorously to the bombardment of the fort by the gunboats. Luka yesterday declared that if his followers, whom he calls the "People's Army," failed to gain a victory over the government, they would shell the foreign quarters in order to bring about foreign intervention. Conflict of Opinion. Canton, China, March 19.—A conflict of opinion has arisen between Allen Herkholz, the United States consular general here, and the British consular general on the question of international action. The senior naval officer of the United States gunboat Wilmington is in command of the foreign naval forces, while a British officer holds the foreign settlement of Shui Meen with a force consisting of four-fifths British and one-fifth French troops. The situation has become so serious that a telegram has been sent to Hongkong asking for advice, and in response Commodore Crosswell J. Lyons, British naval officer in charge at Hongkong, is on his way here. Hongkong, China, March 19.—All the forts at Weihsu, Whampoa, and Fu Min, on the Canton river which recently were captured by the revolting bandit soldiers were retaken today by the government troops after a long and severe campaign. The bandits suffered severe losses.

Taft Invades Home of Governor Bass

President Will Seek Support in New Hampshire Whose Governor is a Roosevelt Advocate.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Boston, Mass., March 19.—President Taft left Boston today at 8:50 o'clock for New Hampshire to invade the state of Gov. Bass, one of the state executives who has announced that he will support Col. Roosevelt. During the day the President expected to lay the corner stone of the Y. M. C. A. at Nashua and to make an address in the Colonial theater there. The North American League will hold a reception for Gov. Bass and his staff at Concord and he will address the citizens of the New Hampshire capital in Phoenix hall. The President will be back in Boston late this afternoon and will leave for Washington tonight. Talks at Lowell. Lowell, Mass., March 19.—President Taft made a brief stop here today on his way to Nashua and Manchester. When the train arrived at 3:30 a. m. a small crowd was assembled at the platform and President Taft gave a one minute talk from the platform of his car. He made no reference to politics. Manchester, N. H., March 19.—President Taft today gave New Hampshire his views on the recall of judges, and judicially defined a "progressive." The president spoke at length at Nashua and in this city and made short speeches in several small towns. In Nashua the president spoke once in the Colonial theater on the recall, and later in the public square. The crowds were large and cheering was frequent.

NEW JERSEY SENATE DECIDES AGAINST WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Trenton, N. J., March 19.—The New Jersey senate today defeated a resolution providing for an amendment to the constitution extending the right of suffrage to women. The resolution received only three votes.

TROUBLE IS HINTED RESULT OF SPEECH MADE BY CHURCHILL

Emperor William Delays Journey to Austria and Italy While German Press Attacks Churchill's Attitude.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Berlin, March 19.—Emperor William has most unexpectedly postponed his departure for Vienna, Vienne and Corfu which was scheduled for March 22. The reason officially assigned for the postponement is "difficulties in the sphere of internal politics." This explanation is so indefinite that it may refer either to the coal strike or, as is more probable, to the conflict now going on in connection with the provision of finances to cover the increase in the army and navy recently decided upon and which caused the resignation of Adolph Wurmuth, formerly secretary of the imperial treasury. Churchill's Speech Causes? There is a strong disposition here, however, to connect the emperor's delay with a speech delivered yesterday by Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, in the British House of Commons. This view is strengthened by the fact that the emperor in the course of the morning paid a long visit to Admiral Von Tirpitz, secretary of the imperial navy, immediately after which leading officers of the admiralty staff assembled in conference, the object of which is not disclosed. Reason Is Important. The reason impelling the emperor to change the plans of his foreign trip must be quite important as it will involve the embarrassment of Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria and King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, whose arrangements for the meeting have all been made. Public opinion of the speech of Winston Spencer Churchill has not yet crystallized, but his references to Germany are regarded in many quarters as highly important in view of the attempt being made to reach an understanding between the two countries. Will Be Carried Out? Magazines, aroused by the announcement of the change in the emperor's plans quickly were alleged this afternoon by announcement issued by the office of the court marshal to the effect of the old arrangement for the emperor's departure will be carried out. Adopts Sharp Tone. Cologne, Germany, March 19.—In replying to the speech made yesterday by Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, in the British House of Commons, the Cologne Gazette adopts an unusually sharp tone. It says in substance that Great Britain must decide from the standpoint of her own interests what increase in her fleet is necessary, and Germany must do the same thing. It continues, "Germany hardly will ever have a navy equal to that of Great Britain, but it Germany's navy is to be destroyed the victory must cost the enemy no heavily that this land will have few resources left to defend her great international interests."

NORTH DAKOTA VOTE HEAVY AT PRIMARY

La Follette Supporters Were First at Polls This Morning, According to Reports From Fargo.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Fargo, N. D., March 19.—Heavy voting marked the opening of the state presidential primary today. Apparently responding to Senator La Follette's personal appeal issued during his rapid trip across the state during the last five days, followers of the Wisconsin man were the first at the polls in many precincts. This particularly was true in Fargo, Grand Forks, and other points in the eastern end of the state. Betting on the result of the vote was active and at several points were two to one on Senator La Follette. Although the weather was cold this morning, no snow was expected in the rural districts and it was said that the highways were in good condition for travel. As the result is nearly all on both sides of the fight, Theodore Roosevelt's campaign manager said that the reports received from Minnaka, Mandan, and other points in the western end of the state showed that Colonel Roosevelt had not lost anything as the result of Senator La Follette's speech-making tour. "The Roosevelt men declared that the trend of the voting indicated a victory for them, although they admit the race is close. It is doubtful if the actual result between Colonel Roosevelt and Senator La Follette will be known before a comparatively late hour Wednesday.

DYNAMITE DID NOT CAUSE LOCOMOTIVE EXPLOSION

Experts Say That Terrible Explosion Was Not Work of Strikers And Labor Leaders as Rumored.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] San Antonio, Tex., March 19.—Experts practically have determined that the explosion which cost the lives of more than thirty persons was not due to dynamite or nitroglycerine as had been rumored.

POSSE SURROUNDING VIRGINIAN OUTLAWS

CAPTURE IS EXPECTED

Believed That Allen Clandamen Are Pockets in Squirrel's Spur in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Charleston, N. C., March 19.—A correspondent at Mt. Airy, N. C., wired that officers in the search of the Allen outlaws positively declared that the hunted men are surrounded in the Squirrel Cap section and they say that if the Allens have been located up to this time the officers on the Mt. Airy side know nothing of it. Leave at Day Break. Mount Airy, N. C., March 19.—A number of citizens left Mt. Airy at daybreak today for Squirrel's Spur 12 miles away in the Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia just across the state line to aid in the capture of the Allen outlaws if the report that they have been located proves true. Are Panned In. An assault on the height of Squirrel's Spur in the Blue Ridge Mountains, where Sydnia Allen and a part of his gang are now believed to be entrenched was planned early today by a posse of forty detectives reinforced by citizen volunteers, was the report from Mt. Airy, North Carolina. Confident that they had located the outlaws around the base of Squirrel's Spur late last night and guarded every approach as they waited for a survey of the surroundings by daylight before undertaking to close in. In the meantime a messenger had been sent to Mt. Airy, N. C., twelve miles away calling for volunteers to aid in storming the position of the fugitives. Interest shifted from Devil's Spur late yesterday when a large posse which had been securing the mountains on the North Carolina side barely missed Wesley Edwards, a nephew of the older Allen at his cabin a short distance east of Allen's home. Edwards escaped through a back door. His sister told the officers that Sydnia Allen suffering from a severe wound had been at the cabin Sunday and had told Edwards to meet him at Squirrel's Spur last night. Taking the trail of Edwards the posse found the rendezvous around the foot of the cliff about ten o'clock and not daring to move in the darkness, the detectives waited for the fugitives to reveal their surrender by expected momentarily. Has No News. Mrs. Sydnia Allen said today she had no idea where her husband was and when told that Floyd Allen still was alive she expressed regret. "I have no idea where Sydnia went when he left me Thursday. I only wish I did. I wish there never had been a gun made. I left our home the night this awful thing happened and my husband was still there. As I kissed him good bye he told me to do everything I could for our two little children and be kind to his dog and cat."

SEN. BURTON OBJECTS TO JUDICIAL RECALL

Ohio Senator Speaks Against Recall of Judges and Judicial Decisions Before Constitutional Convention.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Columbus, Ohio, March 19.—United States Senator Joseph E. Burton of Ohio, before the fourth Ohio constitutional convention today, opposed the recall of judges and of judicial decisions. On the question of the initiative and referendum which now is being debated by the delegates, these two methods, he said, would neither be regarded with grave apprehension nor should they be depended upon for a reorganization of the body politic. Senator Burton approved the action of the convention in authorizing bond issues to the amount of fifty million dollars for highway improvements.

President John T. White of United Mine Workers Declares He Will Be Firm—Not Time For Parley.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Indianapolis, March 19.—"We will stand out for the demands of our men and we want quick action said John T. White president of the United Mine workers of America as he prepared today to depart for Cleveland where he and other representatives of the miners are to meet operators of bituminous coal mines in a wage conference tomorrow. "There is little time for parley," added Mr. White.

EXPECT PASSAGE OF EXCISE INCOME TAX

Democratic Leaders Claim Bill For Excise Income Taxation Will Pass House Before Nightfall.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Washington, March 19.—The excise income tax bill is expected by democratic leaders to be passed by the house before nightfall. A general debate in the two houses, followed by discussion under the five minute rule was arranged to expedite the vote. Democratic Leader Underwood asserted that he had enough supporters to insure the defeat of any attempt to amend the bill in any important particular. The proposed measure is not intended to meet the drain on the treasury which would be caused by putting sugar on the free list. The democratic excise income tax bill passed the House unanimously this afternoon by a vote of 219 to 41. Many republicans voted for it. Chairman H. C. Emery of the tariff board testified before the senate finance committee today that it would take the board two years to thoroughly investigate all of the schedules in the present tariff law. Must Reduce Coal. The interstate commerce commission today ordered a reduction of the rate on bituminous coal from the Pittsburgh district to Great Lakes ports from eighty-eight cents seventy-eight cents a ton.

CAPTURED CONVICT WILL HAVE HEARING

Conspiracy With Intent to Commit Murder is Charge Against Nebraska Convict.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Lincoln, Neb., March 19.—Charles Morley, the living member of the trio of convicts who were captured yesterday after a four-day hunt, and who killed three men in making their attempt to escape from the penitentiary, probably will be given his preliminary hearing the latter part of the week. The charge which will be filed against him will be that of conspiracy with intent to commit murder. "We have filed an information against Morley, David and Gray, charging murder in the first degree," said Deputy County Attorney C. E. Hager, this morning, "but we will be unable to rely on that as we have no proof as to which convict fired the fatal shot. The charge of conspiracy with intent to commit murder, covers the same offense and meets with the same penalty as the first-degree murder charge, but the elements of the crime are different."

TRAIN STRUCK RIG KILLING FIVE MEN

Five Men Riding in Surrey Met Death Today on Crossing Near Ellettsville, Indiana.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Ellettsville, Ind., March 19.—Five men in a surrey were killed outright by a passenger train on the Chicago, Indiana & Louisville Railway at a crossing near here today. They had spent last night in a theater at Indianapolis and were going to Spendenburg where they are employed as glass blowers. The engine struck the surrey squarely and the five men were thrown out. The body of one was caught by the locomotive and carried a mile and half to this city. Trainmen went back to the crossing and found the torn bodies. The horses hitched to the surrey were unhurt. BILL INSUFFERABLE INSULT TO JAPANESE Count Hattori, Member of Opposition in Japanese House, Scathingly Arraigns Dillingham Measure. [BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Tokyo, March 19.—Count Hattori, a member of the opposition in the Japanese house or representatives, today made a remarkable oration in the chamber in connection with an international convention toward the U. S. Count Hattori condemned Senator Dillingham's bill amending the immigration laws of the U. S. as an insufferable insult to Japan. He criticized in the strong terms the Japanese government's expression of its willingness to participate in the Panama exposition as being contradictory to Japan's honor and interest. No reply was made from the government's side of the house but one of the members of the cabinet promised a written response would be given. ICE BREAKING STEAMERS GO TO RESCUE FISHERMEN. [BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] St. Petersburg, March 19.—Three ice-breaking steamers were dispatched from the Navy today in the direction of the island of Nargen to the northwest of Revel in the Gulf of Finland, where 300 fishermen are held in danger of losing their lives. The vote compared with two years ago shows a bit increase.

COAL STRIKE SCARE TENDS TO SUBSIDE; EXPECT AGREEMENT

Believed That Operators and Miners Will Get Together Perhaps Before April 1st.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York, March 19.—There was a suspension of all work in the coal strike today and in consequence there was a falling off in the pressing demand for hard coal from frightened consumers. The belief is gaining ground that both sides will reach an agreement and if there is a suspension April 1st, it will not last long. The operators say they are ready to confer with the men on any reasonable grounds and to consider the proposition from all angles. There are also reports from the hard coal regions that the miners' officials are ready to meet the operators half way. Reports from the West that President Taft may be asked to take a strike, was read with interest, but there was no comment made by the operators. Meanwhile the operators are said to be doing nothing toward preparing for a strike. Local hotels and transit lines are well supplied with coal in preparation for a long strike. Another Day Decides. Cleveland, O., March 19.—Another day is expected to determine whether there is to be war or peace between the operators and miners in the bituminous coal fields of western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. It was said here by representatives of both sides that the result of the conference tomorrow will be accurately forecasted by developments at the first morning session. Strike on in France. Denain, France, March 19.—The strike which began yesterday among the coal miners of this region is extending throughout the entire district of the 13,000 miners attached to the pits, about 7,000 have quit. They demand an eight hour day and a pension of 40 cents a day at the conclusion of 25 years service. Bill in Commons. London, March 19.—Premier Asquith today introduced in the House of Commons the coal mines bill intended to establish a fixed minimum wage for underground workers. "The leaders of the miners' unions decided during their session at Bochum today that to terminate the coal strike in Westphalia as they consider it futile. At Pottsville. Pottsville, Pa., March 19.—The Pottsville coal company operated by Scranton capitalists and located at Minersville, near here, today announced the employees would be granted an increase of wages of 10 per cent to take effect April 1st.

CLOSING ARGUMENTS MADE FOR PACKERS

Attorney Tries to Bring Out Fact That No Definite Public Harm Has Been Proved Against Packers.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Chicago, March 19.—Counsel continued their closing arguments today in the trial of the ten packers charged with criminal violation of the Sherman law. Attorney George T. Buckingham, representing the Swift company, opened the argument for the packers. Mr. Buckingham read from the United States supreme court's decision in the Standard Oil case to the effect that the restriction of trade complained of must be unreasonable and public injury shown to constitute a violation of the Sherman law. He said the government in the packers' case had not attempted to show that the public had been injured by the alleged combination or that the profits of the defendants have been exorbitant.

INCREASED DUTIES FOR JUDGE SANBORN

Vacancies in Federal Courts Has Made Heavy Strain on Wisconsin Jurist.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., March 19.—Federal Judge A. L. Sanborn of this city, representing the western district of Wisconsin, is laboring under a heavy strain just now by the necessity of presiding in two or three other courts besides his own. Federal courts in this part of the country are badly handicapped this winter by vacancies on the bench. Judge Sanborn has been compelled to preside in the eastern district court at Milwaukee, to which Ferdinand A. Gaiser has recently been appointed. The senate is yet to act on the confirmation. The resignation of Judge Grosscup at Chicago had added to Judge Sanborn's burdens, and he makes weekly trips to Chicago. Judge Kohlsaat, also of the Chicago federal bench, is ill, and it is said may decide to leave the bench. Judge George H. Carpenter has a long job in trying the heat trust cases. The great bulk of the federal court business in this section, therefore, is now being done by Judge Sanborn and Judge K. M. Landis.

These Are the Busy Days of Great Spring Openings in Every Store

AND wherever the big Opening "FIRST SHOWING" is here to take its place. And that first showing means the FIRST REAL PEEP at the new styles.

You can't BLAME a woman for losing her head these days. If a man were allowed to wear as pretty things, he would be JUST as crazy to see them. And for that matter, it has ONLY been within the last few centuries that man has gotten away from the frills and furbelows of style and WOMAN has taken them up.

It is from the MEN that women get their Millinery. The 14th century CAVALLIER with the feather in his hat is the FOUNDER of millinery styles. The TUNIC skirt of a few seasons ago was only the old Merovingian FIGHTING SKIRT of the 5th century—first worn EXCLUSIVELY by men. The present dainty JABOT was the MASCULINE method of covering up the soiled SHIRT-FRONT of the sixteenth century.

So, instead of SCORNING styles, a man should BOW-DOWN to the woman's marvelous adaptation of them for HER charm. And while he is LOATHING to admit it, he usually DOES bow down.

For that matter, there isn't a MAN in this city who also has not begun to feel UNCOMFORTABLE in his winter clothes.

So, ALL of you, men, women and children, may just as well begin TO-DAY to turn to the ADVERTISING and look for the STYLES. Every page is INTERESTING to day. Every merchant has SOME THING to say to you; and it is worth YOUR while to listen.

The most ATTRACTIVE things have been gathered from the ends of the earth. They are being displayed as if they were in a GREAT BAZAAR. All the GENIUS of commerce has been brought to bear upon this HARVEST OF STYLE and the stores are WONDERFUL PLACES to look upon.

Y o u r ATTRACTIVENESS, your CHARM and your GOOD APPEARANCE for the next three months depend entirely upon how GOOD A STUDENT you now become of ADVERTISING, and upon how CAREFULLY you watch the new displays in every store.

The great HOME SALES are at so under way, for it is getting close to moving time, and MANY DOLLARS are to be saved by every pair of SHREWD EYES. It is a wonderful habit, this following of the ADVERTISING NEWS. And whenever you see a family that always looks WELL DRESSED, and whose home is always acquiring SOMETHING NEW, you can rest assured that family is usually looking for SOMETHING ELSE in the paper besides the latest divorce in Kankakee or the most beautiful woman in Cairo.

DECIDE TO PURCHASE THE WEST SIDE RINK FOR PUBLIC USES

Directors of Commercial Club endorse idea of Preserving Building For Use of Public.

At an extended meeting of the directors of the Commercial Club held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to organize a holding company with a view of purchasing the West Side Rink and retaining it for public uses rather than see it rented for a long term of years as a hitch barn. The matter has been under consideration for some weeks and the decision Monday was reached after it was learned that the Van Kirk estate, which owns the property, had been offered a most advantageous proposition for its lease for ten years.

Jansville needs just such a place as the rink for a public meeting place and exhibition hall. Madison and other cities in the state have recently built buildings for such purposes, but here is one all ready for use, with a valuable river frontage and half capable of handling the biggest crowd that would gather and floor space enough for any exhibition that might be held. It was thought best to purchase it outright rather than rent it for a term of years at a high rental.

A holding company will be formed to acquire the title to the property, and it is planned to sell one hundred shares at one hundred dollars each, ten to pay the purchase price, and the remainder to be sold at a profit. Experts inspected the building and found it in good condition and needs but few repairs and real estate men estimate the value of the ground and river frontage at eight thousand dollars, so that it is considered a safe investment, the rentals being adequate to defray taxes, repairs and upkeep of the building.

P. E. Lane, secretary of the Commercial Club, has charge of the soliciting of the stock subscriptions and it is hoped the sum needed will be subscribed as quickly as possible so the deal may be closed. The plan is to have it available for all sorts of public gatherings and exhibitions and changes needed to make the building more modern would be installed at once. Those who have outlined the proposition are most enthusiastic over the project.

The use of the rink could be put to have been demonstrated in the past year. The first show that would be held there in the autumn will be the "Made in Jansville" week; then comes the exhibit of the Southern Wisconsin Poultry Association; the Mid-Winter Fair, the Rock County Grain Growers' association; the Automobile show. "These are known exhibits which have become annual affairs that will use the rink and it is possible that society fairs and even dances would also find the rink available for their use.

During the coming summer it will be available for political meetings, for boxing contests; can be used as a drill hall for the Boy Scouts who so easily in need of a suitable hall for this purpose and during the coming state convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles; for a diversified number of affairs that are sure to meet as large a hall. It is located in the very heart of the city, accessible from all parts and has floor space enough to accommodate exhibits and meetings as large as Jansville will need for some time to come.

It would take a very small sum of money to equip it with modern conveniences and during the time it was not utilized for exhibition purposes could be rented for a rink, the popularity of which is an assured asset. Under the management of the holding company it would be well equipped for and could be rented for purposes needed, thus insuring the city a public hall.

As the time is short for closing the deal, it is expected the response to the sale of stock will be speedy and the hall can be saved for the use of the city for the future.

GADSKI AND BISPHAM TO SING AT BELOIT

Jansville Musicians Will be Interested in Two Concerts to be Held This Spring.

Jansville musicians and lovers of grand opera singing will have an opportunity to hear two of the world's greatest soloists, David Bispham, baritone, and Mme. Johanna Gadski, soprano, who will give programs at the First Congregational church in Beloit. Messrs. Tucker and Cleveland who managed the Behnemann-Helbeck concert a year and a half ago, will have charge of these events. Bispham will sing on the evening of April 15, and Gadski has been scheduled for May 8.

The Bispham concert will be an all English program and Mme. Gadski will sing in English and German, with the exception of one Wagnerian aria and a group of German lieder. These two artists represent a $2,500 attraction and the price being asked for both concerts is about what one would pay for a good seat in Chicago to hear either one separately.

A great area of high atmospheric pressure has invaded the Northwest from the far North, bringing much colder weather in Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, North Dakota and Montana. It has pushed southward the area of low atmospheric pressure that was in the Northwest yesterday. This barometric depression now stretches in a long curve from the Lake Region to the lower Mississippi valley, thence westward to the southern Plateau region. In connection with these movements light snows have fallen generally throughout the Northwest, and cloudiness prevails in the upper Mississippi valley. The pressure is somewhat above normal in the Southeast, and the weather is generally fair in the South, although there have been local rains in Kentucky, southern Texas and southern Florida. In this vicinity rain is to be expected this afternoon or tonight, changing to snow by morning, by which time the temperature will have fallen to ten degrees above zero or lower. Wednesday will be cold, but fair, with high northerly winds.

A COLD, LA GRIPPE, THEN PNEUMONIA. Is too often the fatal sequence, and coughs that hang on weaken the system and lower the vital resistance. H. G. Collins, Postmaster, Barnegat, N. J., was troubled with a severe la grippe cough. He says: "I would be completely exhausted after each fit of violent coughing. I bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and before I had taken it all, the coughing spells had entirely ceased. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound can't be beat. It stops the cough by soothing the cause. Refuse substitutes, Huddell Drug Co."

The Everlasting Topic

After all, there are few things quite as interesting as the question of dress. While clothes don't make the man or woman, they afford a pretty good indication of their character after they are made. Time was when they told the story of their means, too, but that time is past. By confining your purchases to our store, you can follow Shakespeare's advice and make—

A GOOD COUGH CURE

Do you remember the good old cough-cure mother used to have? It didn't taste like cherry pie but it did cure a cough in a hurry. Mr. Fleming, our Graduate Pharmacist and Chemist, makes our cough balsam by perspiration direct from the roots, bark and balsam of wild cherry, bloodroot, Lobelia, white pine bark. Thoroughly obtaining the full medicinal virtue and strength of each drug, making it into a syrup we call Badger Cough Balsam. It is made after an old prescription which is today the best cure for any cough, bronchial or lung trouble, healing and soothing to the irritated throat and lungs, it cures by assisting to expel the phlegm from the lungs, not by doing the system with morphine and chloroform as do the modern patent cough remedies, deadening the nervous system, stupefying the lungs into retaining the mucus, thereby bringing on possible pneumonia and pleurisy. Badger Cough Balsam is a trustworthy expectorant, it loosens up and expels the phlegm. Get a bottle today for yourself or the children. It's safe to use, 25¢. AN AUDITORIUM.

It is to be hoped that the ten thousand dollars necessary to purchase the West Side rink and preserve it for public use can be successfully raised. It is an undertaking that means much to the city as a whole and for its future development. The floor space is sufficient to accommodate as large an audience as would be liable to gather at any public meeting or convention. It stands in almost the center of the city, easily reached from all parts of Janesville, and its maintenance is but a small feature after it is once purchased.

Madison has just erected, at considerable cost, a building for just such purposes, which contains no more floor space and while perhaps more modern, is one of their boasts and pride. Milwaukee has erected its auditorium at a large cost to attract conventions and have a place for exhibitions and other cities in the state are likewise provided with similar halls. Here is one already for Janesville to step in and own and it is to be hoped the committee having charge of raising the funds by sale of the stock certificates, will meet with a ready response. The use it can be put to are many. As a gathering place for conventions, as a meeting place for public addresses, mass meetings of citizens, it is most suitable. The annual exhibit of the Southern Wisconsin Poultry association, one of the features of Janesville, can be held here. The fall exhibit of "Made in Janesville" goods which has proved such an attraction the past two years, can be handled with ease. The mid-winter fair, one of the most successful exhibitions ever held in this city, will find plenty of room for its exhibits and, last but not least, the automobile show, just closed, can be held at another successful show.

The hall can be used for boxing contests, for a drill hall, should Janesville ever organize a military company, as a skating rink, as a drill hall for the Boy Scouts, which organization is growing to such prominence it will soon be too large for its present quarters; in fact, for numerous public uses that are not purchased by the proposed holding company it will be leased as a high-burn and its value entirely destroyed for any public use.

It is not buying a pig in a poke as the ground is estimated to be worth eight thousand dollars alone, and the hall is in good condition, and certainly has an earning capacity of two thousand a year, which would be ample to pay taxes, repairs and incidental expenses. It is a safe investment and the proposition deserves the support of every citizen who wants to see Janesville forge ahead and grow. It will be an asset to the city just as the Park association grounds are, as the street car service, the schools, the churches, and the factories.

Too much can not be said in favor of retabbing the West Side rink for public use rather than see it turned into a hith barn. It will be far more valuable as a hall where exhibitions can be held and public meetings gathered than as a mere cattle proposition.

The war is nearly over now. In a few short hours the results will be known and all but six of the many candidates in the field will have discovered just how much their friends, the public, think of them, and their worth to the city as possible administrative officials.

It really looks as though that ground hog theory had something to it after all, and perhaps the old adage, "in like a lion, out like a lamb," as referring to March, will mean something after all.

"Fate has some good, strong men selected as possible delegates in its behalf to be sent to the national republican convention in Chicago and the voters should see to it they are sent."

Bryan explains that the recall of the judiciary he means does not follow out the plan adopted by the Virginia outlaws when one of their number was given a prison sentence.

The next bit of excitement will be the April elections, at which time the voters will also have the choice of expressing their preference for presidential candidates.

With the advent of spring comes the desire for out of doors life. The long, cold winter has cooped up even the children and marble time is hushed with gloom.

COMMISSION TO TEST MURDERER'S SANITY

Examination of Joshua P. Raines, Slayer of Miss Eva M. Chambers, Was Resumed Today.

[Special to The Gazette.]

Salem, Wis., March 19.—The commission composed of Dr. W. E. Howry and Dr. J. C. King, which is charged with examining into the sanity of Joshua P. Raines, the confessed slayer of Miss Eva M. Chambers, resumed its work here today after an intermission of two weeks and heard a number of witnesses. Upon the result of the investigation and the report of the commission it will depend whether Raines will have to stand trial for the murder of Miss Chambers or whether he will be sent to the State institution for the insane.

Raines is a prosperous farmer of wife and two children near Cayo Spring. Some time ago gossip led to differences between Raines and Miss Chambers. Raines tried to have her removed from the school, but failed. The situation was aggravated by the fact that Miss Chambers filed a suit against Mrs. Raines, asking $10,000 damages for alleged slander. On the day of the murder, January 24, of this year, Raines went to see Miss Chambers at her home and asked her to drop her suit against Mrs. Raines. Miss Chambers refused and Raines became so furious that he drew his revolver and fired four shots at Miss Chambers, killing her in her tracks. Before the murderer gave himself up he went to a neighbor's farm and fired five shots at a man named Charles Day, with whom he had had some difficulty. One of the shots hit Day in the right arm. Raines made no effort to flee, but voluntarily surrendered to the sheriff, confessing his crime, but refusing any additional information.

VOTE AT ONE NEARLY UP TO TOTAL FIGURE FOR WHOLE PRIMARY

OF FORMER YEARS—EXPECT LARGE VOTE BEFORE NIGHT.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN

Every Ward But the Fifth Shows Decided Increase Over Previous Primary Days.

It is estimated that the total vote throughout the city at the primaries today will reach twenty-four to twenty-five hundred. Indications of the vote at one o'clock in many instances, judging from the primary results of the past two years, the interest today is unusual. In 1911 the total vote of the day was but 1,592; in 1910 the total vote for the day was 1,317; while today at one o'clock the total vote cast was 1,125 which, figured on the same basis as previous years, means well over two thousand for the total.

With four candidates for mayor and twenty-four for councilmen in the field the interest this spring is intense. The fact that no rigs can be used to haul voters to and from the voting places also shows that the interest in exceptional this year as shown by the large vote. There are many bets being made, the majority of them on the vote on the candidates for mayor and on one or two councilmen.

The Gazette has made arrangements to receive the returns from the various wards as soon as counted and will post them on bulletin boards in the office and in the west windows. It will probably be quite late before the total figures are received, but the question of mayoralship should be settled by eight-thirty at least.

The following is the vote at one o'clock for this year, 1911 and 1910:

	1911	1910	1912
First ward	73	234	236
Second ward	54	150	217
Third ward	30	200	290
Fourth ward	118	106	260
Fifth ward	107	155	120
Total vote	1,582	1,317	1,125

LITERARY SOCIETIES IN WEEKLY SESSION

Good Programs Enjoyed by Forum and Rusk Lyceum at High School Last Night.

Regular weekly meetings of the boys' literary societies of the high school were held last evening and very interesting programs were given in each. In the Forum, each member answered roll call with a short poem, some of which were original and very amusing. Owing to the absence of two of the members who were to have debated the debate was postponed and in its place an extemporaneous talk by Raymond Falter, was substituted. The first regular number on the program was a talk by Stewart Mount on "Safety Devices for Minors," the second number was a discussion of Edison's substitute for the present system of schools. Both of these numbers proved very instructive to the members present.

Rusk Lyceum Debate.
In the Rusk Lyceum, each member answered roll call with a song. The debate of the evening was "Resolved, that an Optional Initiative and Referendum should be adopted in the States." Both sides of the question were ably discussed but the judges picked the affirmative as the winners. The next number was a discussion of Woodrow Wilson, by Harold Mohr. The last number and the one most appreciated by the society, was a song by the society quartet.

HEART AND HOME TALKS

BY BARBARA BOYD
The Whole Aim Of Marriage.

THE Inimitable G. K. Chesterton has said, "The whole aim of marriage is to fight through and survive the instant when incompatibility becomes unquestionable."

We all know Chesterton, and we enjoy the clever thrust of this, and think of our various acquaintances it hits, though it does not, of course, touch us.

We would hate to think that marriage generally was continued on this basis. And we take comfort to ourselves that at any rate, we have not yet arrived at that instant.

But that many do arrive at it is without question. And the fact that they do not survive it, is what keeps the divorce mill running.

Of course, the question of compatibility ought to be studied before marriage. But it seldom is. It is taken for granted. Two people find delight in each other's society. They like, or they think they do, the same books and plays and music and pictures. If now and then, there is a little rift, it is quickly bridged over. And all goes smilingly. The question of compatibility is never searched deeply, down to foundation things.

Then some day, the two wake up, and they find there is no compatibility. The wife wants to go one way, the husband another. They discover that their common likings are the merest superficialities. It is this awakening, this shock, that is disastrous to some. If sympathy does out, if quarrels slip in, they are on the road to the divorce court or a most unhappy married existence.

But if they can fight through and survive this, if they can summon forbearance, if they can find some good still left, they can go forward, not perhaps to the ecstatic state they had anticipated, but to a far happier condition than divorce or continual quarrelling will bring them.

But some will say, why do this? Why live a lie?

There are many reasons for doing it. And rightly lived, such a life is not a lie. If there are children, here is a reason quite sufficient. Children should not be brought up in a home that is a battleground between husband and wife. A divorce would probably be better than this. But if mutual forbearance rules, the children can grow up in a calm, apparently happy atmosphere. And since they are brought here without choice, some things are due them.

Then again, the lot of the divorced man or woman is not a particularly happy one. Although among the Four Hundred, it may be more fashionable to be divorced than to be happily married, in the average American community, the divorced person is looked at askance. And the man or woman who files to the divorce court, the instant incompatibility is discovered, will not find his future path quite as bright and care-free as anticipated.

But there is a still higher reason than these. Through the forbearance and self-control that takes the place of the rapturous emotion of the first chapter of married life, there will be a steady upbuilding of character. When the twain have fought through and survived that instant when incompatibility is discovered, and the storm waves have subsided, there will be found to be some fragments of love left. The two can help each other yet. Seeing now with clearer vision, they may discover they are more necessary to each other than before, necessary that is to a beautiful development of character.

And so, though one may disagree with Chesterton, that the whole aim of marriage is to fight through this instant, it is in most cases better to fight it through and survive it, than to make a home-run for the divorce court to have shackles knocked off.

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

ONE of Robert Louis Stevenson's books, a young man receives this advice from a friend who has seen something of the world: "Be soope, Davie, in all things immaterial."

With the end of Lent, the most prolific wedding season of the year will commence. How I wish that every twain who are to become one this spring would take the above advice for their nuptial motto, and honestly resolve on their wedding day to try to be "soope in all things immaterial."

I wish also that they might be able to get the right point of view on what is material and what is not. So many things are immaterial that we fume and fret and worry ourselves about. And so many things are vital that we seem to hold very lightly.

For instance, any dated party will certainly admit that it is comparatively immaterial whether that call on which Mrs. Nowlywed's heart is set is made Friday evening, or put off until the next week in deference to a smoker which Mr. Nowlywed particularly wishes to attend. But the two most concerned do not seem to be able to look at this matter as immaterial. And no one will deny that the peace and harmony of the home are most vital in the lives of these young folks. And yet, over that immaterial point, they lightly soil and tarnish these precious and vital things.

In a witty little volume by one of the modern women writers, a young wife is pictured as inquiring of her husband, who has just come from their home to the summer place where she is stopping, if he brought down a particular belt which she has repeatedly charged him not to fail to bring. Of course, he has brought the wrong belt and for a moment she is ready to scold. Then the following dialogue takes place:

"Look here, could you use some chocolate nougat, instead of the belt? Because I have got that."

"Of course I could, Tommy, dear, and it doesn't make much difference anyway. Where's the nougat?"

"Mr. Willoughby struck an attitude."

"And there are still people who wonder why I married you!" he exclaimed. "Toots, you're a brick!"

If more women were like that, fewer men would be asking themselves why they ever married. Furthermore, when a woman like that wants something which is really material, she usually gets it.

Nor is this preachment aimed chiefly at the feminine sex. Quite to the contrary. "Be soope in all things immaterial" is an admonition which men need as much if not more, than women.

To be sure, as I can feel some logical person thinking, both do not need to be soope all the time. But there is little danger of that.

A very happy couple, who seem to grow more devoted every year of their married life, once told me that they made a resolution on their wedding day that each would give up more than half the time, if any two people will make a resolution to be soope more than half the time, and will really try, despite failures and discouragements, to live up to that, they will be practically sure of a happy married life.

UP-TO-DATE HOUSEKEEPING.

Points That Make a Perfect Boiled, Baked or Steamed Custard.

By Allen E. Whitaker.

The assurance comes from the head of the national bureau of chemistry that eggs have been better the past winter than for many years at the same season as there were less eggs in cold storage. The housewife has been fairly sure of finding no bad ones if she bought those labeled the best, and it is no economy to buy any but the first grade as one or two bad ones in a dozen brings the cost of the remaining good ones up to that of the best fancy grade.

Those who do not understand cooking the combination of milk and eggs called a custard make the mistake of over cooking what is erroneously termed a boiled custard and it curdles. If they bake the mixture it is either full of whey or is raw and liquid in side. For those who have difficulty in making either kind so that it is smooth and creamy the following detailed directions are given for custard making.

Heat two cups of milk in a double boiler then beat the yolks of three eggs until well broken up and add four level tablespoons of sugar and one-eighth of a tablespoon of salt. Pour the hot milk slowly over the eggs and sugar stirring all the time, return to the double boiler, continue stirring and cook until a coating forms on the cool spoon when dipped in the custard.

Strain it once into a bowl and when cool add one-half teaspoon of vanilla or lemon flavoring.

If a custard is cooked too long it will curdle; if this happens lift the upper part of the boiler from the hot water, pour in a tablespoon of cold milk and beat with an egg beater. This will make it smooth again. For an economical boiled custard allow two egg yolks and one-half tablespoon of cornstarch to two cups of milk and one-quarter cup of sugar. Beat one and three-quarters cup of milk, mix the cornstarch with one-quarter cup of cold milk and cook ten minutes then follow directions for making boiled custard.

To make baked cup custards heat two cups of milk in a double boiler, beat two whole eggs, add one-half cup of sugar, one-quarter teaspoon of salt and pour the milk on slowly stirring constantly. Strain and fill buttered earthen cups. Grate a very little nutmeg over each cup or season the whole before filling the cups with one-half teaspoon of vanilla or lemon flavoring.

Set the cups in a pan of hot water in a slow oven. When the custards seem firm run a silver knife in and if it comes out clean the custard is done but if there is a milky coating the mixture is still uncooked. When cold unmold on a plate of glass dish for serving or if baked in blue and white cups serve in the same.

If a custard is baked rapidly or more properly boils in the oven, it will be full of holes and there will be a sweet whey in the bottom of the cups or mold.

Steamed custards are prepared as for baking. Set in a covered steamer over hot water and steam until firm or when tested with a silver knife it is found cooked to the center.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR THE BUSY HOUSEWIFE.

A most delicious tapioca pudding is made with canned pears for an accompaniment.

A few prunes or cherries are an addition to a tapioca pudding.

When making pastry, handle with as little moisture as possible; the more crumbly it is the more flaky it will be.

When putting on the top crust, just after rolling out, spread it with lard and sprinkle with flour and put it in, then sprinkle with cold water just before putting into the oven. It will puff up and be very much flakier than usual.

In rheumatism the great remedy is elimination, getting rid of the poisons which go back into the system and should be thrown off.

Put five or six sheets of paper in the bottom of a fruit cake pan before baking the cake, and it will be much nicer, as the long baking tends to make a hard crust, which is not allowed to form with the paper as a protection.

A most appetizing dish to be served either for supper or luncheon is potatoes and bacon. Put a layer or two of thinly-sliced potatoes in a buttered bakish dish and pour over a thin white sauce or simply milk with a little seasoning of salt, pepper and butter. Lay over the top a few slices of nice bacon and set into the oven to bake for an hour or longer, depending upon the thickness of the potatoes. Serve from the dish, as it looks almost as good as it tastes.

Whole wheat right from the granary, which can be bought for two cents a pound, if cooked until soft and the grains well cracked, makes an ideal breakfast food for a growing child, or in fact anybody, for with cream and a bit of sugar it is a meal in itself. Children should not be allowed much sugar on breakfast foods; none is better for most children, and if they never have it they will not miss it. Soak the wheat after bruising it, if desired to crack the grains, then put it on to cook for a half a day. A fireless cooker is a fine place to cook whole wheat.

A hundred calorie portion of puffed wheat, for which we pay a cent and a quarter, has no more nutriment in it than the same amount of whole wheat, which costs a sixth of a cent.

STANDARD FOR CLEANLINESS OF MILK NEEDED.

Everywhere milk is required to contain a certain percentage of fat. The next step is to require a certain degree of cleanliness as a condition of being allowed to purvey milk in cities. In New York city, the milk dealers are listed, with the percentage of bacteria contained in the milk of each, as shown by occasional tests. In the city of Washington tests made in 1907 showed certain samples containing less than 1,000 bacteria per cubic centimeter, while other specimens contained 600,000. When milk is required to conform to a fixed standard, strict cleanliness will be observed as a necessity.

BED MAKING.

One of the most essential items in the care of a patient is proper preparation and care of the bed. One of the first requirements of a good nurse is her ability in this line, and yet how seldom do we find anyone except a trained nurse who understands this matter so essential to the patient's comfort.

First, the mattress must be protected, both for the sake of cleanliness and for economy. Unless the patient has involuntary urinations or bowel movements, a soft pad will be sufficient. Over this the lower sheet should be drawn smoothly and pinned to the under side of the mattress at the corners. The upper sheet and blanket come next. These should be well tucked in at the foot of the bed, but not so tightly as to be uncomfortable for the patient. The upper edge of the blanket must be protected by turning the end of the sheet back over it. A patient often is uncomfortable with the usual heavy white counterpane over him, although he may fail to find the source of his discomfort. Counterpanes interfere with the circulation of the air and although they add to the looks of a bed, the patient's comfort must be the first consideration. A light weight, loosely woven spread may be used.

When the patient is very ill, or if the nature of the illness is such that the lower sheet becomes soiled, a draw sheet should be used. After the lower sheet has been fastened in place, a sheet of rubber cloth, about a yard square, is placed across the middle of the bed, allowing the upper edge to meet the pillow. This is pinned in place by one safety pin at each corner. Over this is placed a sheet that has been folded crosswise. The hands should come at the bottom so as not to form a ridge under the patient's back. The sheet should be securely tucked in at the sides.

The changing of the linen should be managed with as little fatigue and discomfort to the patient as possible. This can be done easily by one person, unless the patient is very ill or helpless.

Only the upper sheet or blanket is left over the patient; the lower sheet is then loosened at top, bottom and sides; one side is then folded along its entire length, lengthwise as flatly as possible close up to the patient. The fresh sheet should then be folded lengthwise, alternately backward and forward, for half its width, and placed on the side of the bed from which the soiled one has been removed. The nurse then goes to the other side of the bed, turns the patient carefully on his side facing the nurse. She then tucks the folded sheets close up to him, smoothing the clean sheet carefully. She then turns the patient over onto his other side.

BRONCHITIS

To Whom It May Concern.

Bluevale, Ont., May 4, 1910—"I was sick for two years with chronic bronchitis and a consequent run-down condition. I received no benefit from doctors or from a trip which I took for my health, and I had to give up work. Vinol was recommended, and from the second bottle I commenced to improve. I gained in weight and strength, my bronchial trouble disappeared, and I am at work again.

It is the combined action of the curative elements of the code's liver, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol which makes it so successful in curing bronchitis. Vinol is a constitutional remedy for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles—not a palliative like cough syrups.

Baby's Prayer

By Byron Williams

Oh, God is near the cottage when the evening shadows creep,
And baby lips are murmuring: "I lay me down to sleep."
No matter what the distance is where baby says her prayer,
The omnipotent God of Love is always watching there!

Ah, he who notes the sparrows fall and shall he forget the hour of dusk when baby says good night?
Shall he, aloof from baby's prayer, and baby's laughter purled,
Deny himself the sweetest chords that claim a raptured world?

Ah, God is near when baby prays beside her downy bed,
And God will send his angels down to guard her through the Sleepy Way,
The "hobby" wood of night,
And give her back to mother's arms when Phoebe tucks her tight!

Ah, now the baby whispers "Amen!" and mother tucks her snug,
And kisses her, and puts her hair and calls her "mother's bug!"
And then she glides from the room, as evening shadows thin,
And leaves her baby, fast in sleep, to angel guards—and him!

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

WHAT AMERICA MISSED.

By A. W. MACY.

It was not publicly known till almost a century after the close of the Revolutionary war that the Americans missed a grand opportunity to conquer England in short order and avoid a long-drawn-out war for independence. In 1776 Gen. John Kalb came over with an offer from a French count named Braglie to become the William of Orange of America and lead the patriots to speedy victory. The count recommended himself most highly, and all he asked in return was, that he should be granted a large sum for expenses before embarkation, paid a liberal salary, given absolute command of the army, and granted a princely annuity for life after the war was over. Very soon after arriving in America Gen. Kalb saw how utterly impracticable and foolish the count's project was, and he had the good sense to say nothing about it. The count's letter of instructions was found among Kalb's papers long after his death.

CENTER

IRISH HOME RULE IS NOT DECIDED ON BY LEADERS AS YET

Will Not be Taken up by Parliament Until After Easter It Is Expected.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, March 16.—The Irish Home Rule Bill is not to be introduced in the House of Commons before Easter.

Thus far the members of the ministry have kept the secret as to the details of the bill entirely to themselves
unless perhaps the Nationalist leaders have been given a hint as to how far the Government is prepared to go. Mr.
Churchill delivered a long speech in Hastings without letting very much out and he has been followed by Mr.
Harcourt, the Irish secretary, who has said even less. He, however, did tell the country that the bill was to be introduced by Mr. Asquith, the premier in this respect following the example of William Ewart Gladstone, who personally introduced both his Home Rule Bills, and that "this was proper as the bill was no departmental measure, but an important and an authoritative act of the whole Liberal party."

The preamble or first clause will set forth that the bill sets up on Irish soil
an Irish Parliament, a House of Commons and a Senate, with legislative authority over the whole range of purely Irish domestic affairs. This was hardly news. What the people have been asking is what safeguards have been inserted to protect the Protestant ministry in Ulster, and more particularly what are to be the financial arrangements. The ministers have assured the Ulsterites that the safeguards against religious intolerance will be sufficient without having as yet stopped the agitation against the bill in Hastings and the surrounding country.
However, this will not be the Government's greatest difficulty, for the nonconformists in England are not giving their fellow religiousists in Ireland the same support that they did in previous Home Rule campaigns.

What will trouble the ministers are the financial arrangements. Nationalist members speaking in Ireland lately have been demanding full fiscal autonomy, a demand that the Government can hardly grant and a refusal of which might cause the bill to be rejected by the Dublin convention, as was the Irish Councils Bill. The Government might grant the control of excise or inland revenue, but to hand over the control of the customs would be to court the opposition of some of their own English and Scotch free trade supporters. It has been suggested that a way might be found out of the difficulty by introducing a provision that complete free trade should be continued between the two countries and by giving the Irish parliament the power of varying the rates of customs duties on foreign imports, while withholding the power to vary the articles on which duty is now levied. If the demands of Ireland as to financial arrangements are not satisfactory, Mr. Redmond might prefer to oppose the bill before submitting it to the convention.

Besides the alleged unfairness of placing Protestant Ulster under a government which, by the nature of things would be largely made up of Roman Catholics, the Unionists are fighting the Government on the finances. They point out that the trade of Ireland has increased enormously in recent years and that now England gets a very appreciable portion of her food supplies from the sister Isle. So long as Ireland remains in the Union no enemy could stop that supply, on which England's very life might depend—no enemy, that is, except which could stop the export of food to England
when she needed it most. Ulster too, they say, should have something to say about the disposal of the customs collections, for, while she pays something over $10,000,000 annually in customs, the rest of Ireland contributes only $3,000,000.

It is estimated that the expenses of Government in Ireland are about $25-
500,000 and the income from the island
$11,000,000. The balance has come out of the pockets of the other members of the Union and the Government in its bill proposes that Ireland should be granted a subsidy for fifteen years to cover the deficiency. Then there are the old age pensions, paid by the Imperial Exchequer and the billion dollars invested in land purchase and other matters of finance, every one of which offers a difficulty to the framers of a Home Rule Bill. To satisfy all, of course, is impossible, and even to satisfy a sufficient number of members of the House of Commons to make Home Rule possible this year, Unionists say, is out of the question. Therefore they are looking for a general election in the summer.

Both sides are campaigning in England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland, but still Ulster remains by far the most interested. Excitement has cooled down since Mr. Churchill's visit to Hestings, but the Unionists have no intention of allowing this, the greatest asset in their campaign—the intention of Ulster to fight—to lose its force. To keep up the fighting Mr. Churchill, the Irish Home Rule leader, is to visit Belfast on Easter Tuesday and address a great open-air gathering and the First Lord of the Admiralty is to be supported by the Duke of Antrim, Sir Edward Carson and others. Proceeding the meeting there is to be a great demonstration of Unionists and a parade through the city. Should the parade pass through the Nationalist section troops may be needed, as they were during Mr.
Churchill's visit. It is expected that there will be in the parade 100,000 members of the Ulster Unionist Council, Loyal Orange lodges and Ulsterist clubs of Ireland.

Should the bill be accepted by the Nationalist convention, or even if rejected be proceeded with, the debate in the Commons will rank as one of the great parliamentary duels. With Mr.
Balfour out of the House, as he has been since the opening, Mr. Asquith has been the master of debate. Mr.
Balfour, however, is coming back for the Home Rule Bill and will take a prominent part in the earlier discussions. This two great speeches will thus be delivered by the old opponents and the harder subsequent fighting
left to Mr. Churchill, Mr. Lloyd George and other ministers on one side and Mr. Bonar Law, the Ulsterist leader,
Sir Edward Carson and other front-

THE THEATERS!

SUSIE WILKIE IN "THE SPRING MAID."

HOWE'S TRAVEL FESTIVAL.

Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival which comes to the Myers Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 26 and 27, matinee 27, is its own best advertisement. For every one who sees it for the first time, there are ten or more who attend next time.
It seems to satisfy the craving for novel and wholesome entertainment as thoroughly as any attraction before the public. The legion of "Howe tourists" may again gaze upon entirely new scenes, ranging from the sublime to those of a purely amusing nature. Perhaps the strangest journey of all is the trip to the "roof of the world," starting with a ride on the Cos. Wheel Railway of Montreux.
After reaching the top platform, the audience is swung from one Alpine peak to another via the Wetterhorn Suspension cable. They then glide together for mutual protection from the danger that lurks at every step, proceed on the last perilous stage to the summit. From this altitude the audience gazes on the weird scene of a rolling sea of clouds, followed by glorious sunsets and moonlit views over the icy peaks.

The prestige attained by Mr. Howe's exhibition was officially recognized recently in a very complimentary way by the U. S. Government. One of the objects of the great Naval Review in New York Harbor last November was to arouse greater pride and patriotism in our "New Navy." Believing that this should not be confined only to actual spectators of the Review, the Secretary of the Navy, Mr. George von L. Meyer, was anxious that the country at large should benefit by the demonstration. He became convinced that no one uses the power to such great advantage as does Mr. Howe.
Acting on this conviction, he granted
Mr. Howe's camera men the very exclusive privilege of accompanying him on the U. S. S. Dolphin as that the three million "Howe travelers" throughout America might see the greatest naval review in American history at even closer range than the spectators that lined the banks or crowded excursion boats. The in-imate scenes obtained from the deck of the Dolphin as the ship steamed past miles and miles of the very flower of the U. S. Navy on the tour of inspection, furnished a lesson of the efficiency of men, guns and machinery of our mighty war vessels that is of incalculable value. The combined power of the ships represented gives the beholder a fresh, vivid and entirely new conception of our country's resources and power.
The ships, in their holiday dress,
present a scene that is profoundly impressive, and this is further intensified at the thrilling climax when the stately procession moves at full sail out to sea in a driving gale and at the same time salutes directly in front of Mr. Howe's cameras. A picture of historic and romantic interest of the Grand River Canon, Colorado, and the latest mode of locomotion through water and air by means of the hydroplane, are only a few of the many other features of interest to be presented.

THE MOST DESIRED OF LOST
MANUSCRIPTS.
E. H. Southern makes the rather assertion that the date of his birth is unknown, but he died in 1660, at a ripe age. Besides having, as he said:
"Either an entire hand or at least a man's finger" in 220 dramas, he was engaged in acting almost every day.
He delighted in compilation. He published in 1623 his famous "Nine Books of Various History Concerning Women," and labored for many years on a Biographical Dictionary of all the poets, from the most remote period down to his own time. This priceless manuscript was lost! However, it would doubtless not at rest
and for all time, the Baconian theory.
John Addington Symonds said, "There was no man of that century better qualified by gentility and honesty of purpose for the task of writing informally of the great men of his time, than the old actor and playwright." That this book would have proved a rare tome is proved by his "Hierarchy of the Angels," the same being verses on the nicknames of the poets of his time. In this he says of the bard:
"Mellituous Shakespeare, whose enchanting quill Commanded truth or passion, was but WILL."
Southern and Marlowe will be at Myers Theatre Wednesday evening,
April 15.

Writing for Publication.

The reason why so many writers fail is because they try to write when they have nothing to say. Or, if they really have ideas, they are unable to express themselves clearly. The author must keep to the short sentence.
It is much safer. Do not fancy that one can merely sit down and write.
An article must be planned as the architect designs the dwelling, every detail being carefully thought out and considered.

BACKACHE ALMOST UNBEAR- ABLE.

Is an almost certain result of kidney trouble. D. Toomey, 803 E. Olive St., Bloomington, Ill., says: "I suffered with backache and pain in my kidneys which were almost unbearable.
I gave Foley's Kidney Pills a good trial, and they done wonders for me.
Today I can do a real hard day's work and not feel the effects." Foley's Kidney Pills will cure any case of kidney and bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. No medi-

Stone Jug Not in Demand.

A countryman went into a New York store and asked for a stone jug. He didn't get it. The merchant said he did not know when he ever had such a call. The stone jug has gone out of city trade. The demijohn long since took its place, but the average countryman sticks to the jug. According to the Vesey street merchant, if a city man wants a jug he has to go out of town to buy it.

escaped unhurt is not the first to be fall back on.—Indianapolis News.

DON'T NEGLECT A CHILD'S COUGH

The "Child's Welfare" movement has challenged the attention of thoughtful people everywhere. Mothers are natural supporters, and will find in Foley's Honey and Tar Compound a most valuable aid. Coughs and colds that unchecked lead to croup, bronchitis and pneumonia yield quickly to the healing and soothing qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates and no harmful drugs. Is a medicine, not a narcotic. Refuse substitutes. Badger Drug Co.

ORDER That Monument NOW

Ordered now it will be ready to be set in place in time for Memorial Day.
Ordered now it will naturally have more time in the job than when the rush season comes—a more perfect job. And, too, the selection of marble or granite is larger and better now. In a word, now is the time to order that monument.

WEARY MOTHER—COME, TOMMY—THIS IS ALL MONSENSE. YOU KNOW THAT PRAYER AS WELL AS I DO, AND I WANT YOU TO SAY IT TOMMY (SWEETLY): WELL, MAMMA I WAS ONLY TRYING TO TEASE GOD A LITTLE BIT.

"MA, AM I THE DESCENDANT OF A MONKEY?" "I DON'T KNOW REPLIED THE MOTHER. "I NEVER KNEW YOUR FATHER'S TOLKS"

Perhaps, "I think," said Congressman Ruggles, "that to a point of order, I want a man's seat in this thing."

"Oh, well," replied the speaker, "that's a horse of another color."

You Take Your Chances. "Now, how far back does my family run?"

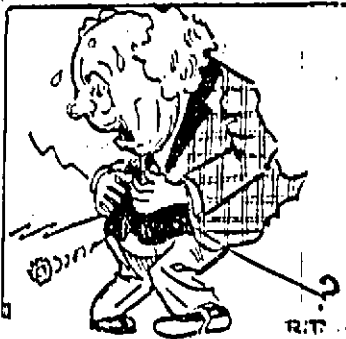

Genealogist—That's for you to decide. We'll go as far back as you wish to pay for, sir—Judge.

Easily Understood. "Do you believe money talks?"

"Yes."

"What does it say?"

"To the average person it says 'Spend us!'"

CONSIDER THE WAY OF THE LITTLE GREEN CUCUMBER, WHICH NEVER DOES ITS BEST FIGHTING TILL IT IS DOWN.

His Part. He—So young March and his father are carrying on the business?

She—Yes. The old man runs the business, while young March does the carrying on.

Eligible. "The woman I marry," he said, "must be able to blush."

"Oh," she replied, "I can do that. I blush every time I am seen anywhere with you,"—Judge.

Not Flattering. "Does death and all?" asked the solemn boarder.

"Not for a week or so in case of a turkey," answered the cheerful boarder.

Certainly. Sunday School Teacher—And was Adam really the first man?

Willy (whose father is a theatrical manager)—Sure. That is, of course, except his advance agent.—Puck.

Market Quiet. "Why are you rushing around so today?"

"I'm trying to get something for my wife."

"Had any offers?"

Trying. Mrs. Platt—Alice cannot seem to master that difficult piece of music.

She's been trying all the afternoon.

Mrs. Nextdoor—Yes. Indeed, she has been.

A Fortiori Hope. "It's great to leave one's footprints, friend."

SIDEWALK SKETCHES.

HOUSECLEANING.
By Howard L. Ramm.

Housecleaning is a pastime which woman indulges in whenever she wants to give her husband a temporary work-out. It is accomplished by a species of industry, which makes the interior of the house look like the headquarters of a wrecking crew.

When a woman makes up her mind to clean house, she changes with lightning rapidity from a mild, human creature into a fiend in human form. Armed with a dust cloth and a bar of soap, she charges through the house, leaping from room to room and chair to chair with the agility of a hummingbird.

Her angel, Puffy, invertebrate man is pointed out on the back porch and obliged to assemble his victims on the kitchen table, after which he is led out on the lawn, and into the presence of a rag carpet, which is choked with dust and red floral designs, and invited to lean up against it with a wire ball. This is the most humiliating work a man can engage in, and nothing but love and the sanctity of the marriage vows prevents him from rising up in rebellion.

A woman is never satisfied that the house has been thoroughly cleaned until she has shifted things around, so that a man couldn't locate his slippers and pipe with a posse of bloodhounds. For several days after housecleaning, most men have to remove their shoes on the front stoop, and sit at the dinner table in a pair of bed slippers and a subdued look. During housecleaning, there are few four-course meals served, and the pantry is never congested with mince pies to any extent. Some day man will arise and strangle the housecleaning incubator with his bare hands.

It is a cruel custom, which not only frazzles the temper, but creates a good deal of unnecessary deshabille. There ought to be a law against it.

Definition of Music. Music is a kind of inarticulate, unfathomable speech, which lends us to the edge of the infinite, and lets us for a moment gaze into that.—Cecyle.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Gazette, March 19.—1872

It is stated that Chief Justice Chase left for New York today, for the purpose of urging August Belmont and other prominent democrats of that locality to hold a straight-out party convention notwithstanding the Cincinnati movement. Chase is said to regard Judge Davis' prospect for the Democratic nomination with much jealousy.

The Madison council by a vote of eight to three have decided not to fight the gas to the future.

The third rehearsal of Eather's takes place this evening.

The fifth day of May is the time of Bishop Armstrong's visit to the Trinity church.

David Jeffris is spoken of as a candidate for alderman in the fourth ward.

The Beloit Woolen Mill has just been leased to John Graves, of Lacoon, Ill., and is to be put in running order at once.

Dates & Nichols have refitted their law office making it a handsome and pleasant apartment. These gentlemen are somewhat notorious for their pride in exterior appearance and it is not surprising that they surround themselves with a neat and tasty office.

An adjourned meeting of the board of trade will be held at the council room, this Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock p. m. All persons interested in the establishment of manufacturing industries in this city are cordially invited to be present. Signed P. S. Lawrence, Sec.

The cheap concert inaugurated by the Young Men's Association last winter have proven a greater success than any series of the entertainment since then for the edification and amusement of our citizens. Patronage has steadily increased from the beginning and last night's receipts foot up to the comfortable sum of one hundred dollars and fifty cents, which is about double the amount taken for tickets at the first concert.

Could Live on Waste. In the various discussions of the high cost of living, it is frequently suggested that waste is responsible for some of it. A Frenchman is reported as saying that he could live in any American village better than any of the inhabitants on what the inhabitants throw away.

Sure Enough. The teacher had been telling the class about the rhinoceros family.

"Now, name some things," said she, "that are very dangerous to get near to, and that have horns." "Automobiles!" replied little Jannie Jones, promptly.—Undisputed.

Though low and humble is my station, I'll help to save this ailing nation. I won't stir up a revolution by means of frenzied eloquence, or loud myself with facts and labor to bring conviction to my neighbor, or on the streets do verbal capers, or write long letters to the papers. I'll do my task appointed daily, and do it cheerfully and gallantly.

SAVING THE COUNTRY

While no time in idle the savings bank my savings, and pay my bills when they're presented and wear a nice clean, contented, I'll keep my shack supplied with bacon, and waste no precious hours in quaking over perils dark and dire that threaten, my little household forgetting. Some patriots, on sidewalks sitting, may watch me tending to my knitting, and say I'm full of sordid notions, incapable of high emotions, I ought to spend the day yelling, the loud and blaring chorus swelling, I ought to whoop for Bill, already, or bust a gallop for our Teddy, but I'll just tuck round the harder and harder for my private larger; for that's the way to save the nation that should receive your admiration.

QUESTION UNSETTLED

The Rev. J. J. Laughlin, pastor of the Presbyterian church, declared that he had not spoken in opposition to Sunday theatre opening from the standpoint of a minister, but from that of a citizen. He thought that it would be a dangerous entering wedge and that ultimately it would result in the breaking down of the Sabbath rest idea. Those who are interested in the welfare of the masses of men should fight for the integrity of the Sabbath, for the farther people wandered from the Decrying that some of the strongest opponents of opening the play houses on Sunday were the best people of the city who commonly go to Chicago and Milwaukee to attend Sunday performances, Alderman Dulla, characterized their opposition as decidedly selfish. They were not willing that people who could not afford to go away should have the same privileges in their home town. Janesville was ridiculed by "knockers," who tried to kill and were usually successful in killing every movement for the good of the city. This had been shown on questions of street improvement and in many other ways.

"It," said Alderman Dulla, "am willing to boost this movement and will vote for it."
